

GLEASMANS FALLS TRAIL

Part of the Beach Mill Trail

Gleasmans Falls Trail is a 6.2 mile out and back trail located near Lowville, NY. This is a moderately trafficked trail appropriate for all skill levels with a beautiful view of the falls at the 3.1 mile mark. Dogs are also able to use this trail but must be kept on a leash.

DIRECTIONS

From Lowville, take Number Four Rd. east into Adirondack Park. In Crystal Dale, right on Erie Canal Rd. In 2.5 miles, left on McPhilly Rd. In 0.25 miles, left on Beach Mill Rd. (no sign). In 0.9 miles, left at fork on Beach Mill Rd. Go 2.1 miles to trail head.

Note: Beach Mill Rd. can be difficult to navigate without 4WD during wet weather. Please plan accordingly.

The Beach Mill Trail extends another 2.2 miles after the falls, where it connects with the Panther Pond Trail and Fish Trail. The Panther Pond trailhead is located at the end of Smith Road. The trailhead for Fish Trail is accessed from the end of Stony Lake Road.

Distance: 6.2 miles (out and back)
Elevation Gain: 442 feet

Please respect private property and follow trail markers like this.

adirondackstughill.com

f @ @adirondackstughill